

Privacy Readiness Report

EU General Data Protection Regulation - Regulation (EU) 2016/679

Organization: Example

Assessor: Reviewer | Classification: Confidential

Generated: 1970-01-01T00:00:00.001+00:00

READINESS BOUNDARY

Evidence coverage is not certification, legal advice, or a determination of conformity.

Qualified human review remains required.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

This report summarizes evidence readiness and open human-review work.

SCOPE

Product and service

EVIDENCE READINESS

Coverage 0% | Supported 0 | Partial 0 | Gap 6 | Manual 1 | N/A 0

CONTROL DETAILS

Accountability and records - Processing inventory and ownership

Automated evidence: gap

Document processing activities, data categories, purposes, systems, recipients, owners, and transfers.

No evidence matched the 2 expected evidence group(s).

Principles and lawfulness - Purpose, lawful basis, notices, and consent

Automated evidence: gap

Document purpose limitation, lawful bases, transparent notices, and consent where relied upon.

No evidence matched the 3 expected evidence group(s).

Data subject rights - Rights request operations

Automated evidence: gap

Operate authenticated, timely access, correction, deletion, restriction, portability, and objection workflows.

No evidence matched the 2 expected evidence group(s).

Privacy by design and DPIA - Minimization, privacy engineering, and risk assessment

Automated evidence: gap

Apply minimization and privacy by design and perform DPIAs where processing risk requires them.

No evidence matched the 2 expected evidence group(s).

Security and breach response - Security, retention, deletion, and incidents

Automated evidence: gap

Protect personal data, test safeguards, enforce retention/deletion, and operate breach assessment and notification.

No evidence matched the 3 expected evidence group(s).

Processors and transfers - Processor and transfer governance

Automated evidence: gap

Inventory processors, execute required terms, assess international transfers, and oversee safeguards.

No evidence matched the 2 expected evidence group(s).

Scope and governance - Applicability, roles, and supervisory obligations

Automated evidence: manualReview

Have qualified reviewers confirm territorial/material scope, controller/processor roles, DPO duties, and authority obligations.

A qualified reviewer must record this decision.

SOURCE REFERENCE

Official GDPR text on EUR-Lex

<https://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/?uri=CELEX:32016R0679>

This technical readiness profile is not legal advice and does not determine GDPR applicability or compliance. Legal basis, proportionality, risk, and accountability require qualified privacy review.